

MEDALS PRESENTED—Parents of Capt. Frank Bryan, Lynn, look at medals he earned while serving as a helicopter pilot in Vietnam. On Feb. 25, 1969, during his second tour of duty there, his plane was shot down by enemy fire and he was killed, along with another servicemen in the ship. Capt. Ace Cozzalio of Sacramento, Calif. (right), who was flying in another plane on the same combat mission, shows the dead pilot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Banks Bryan, medals their son earned. Capt. Bryan was buried in Cross Roads Cemetery Saturday afternoon following church and military services.—NWA Photo.

