

HEADQUARTERS 3D BRIGADE (TRAINING)
UNITED STATES ARMY TRAINING CENTER, INFANTRY
Office of the Commanding Officer
Fort Ord, California

22 June 1962

Mr. Vet W. Cawthorne
[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Cawthorne:

Your son, Private William B. Cawthorne, Company A, 7th Battle Group, 3d Brigade, Fort Ord, California, has been selected as the outstanding trainee in his company. The selection was made by the officers and non-commissioned officers of his company and was based on his soldierly attributes, personal conduct, and his ability to assimilate the training presented.

As his father, you may feel justifiable pride in your son's accomplishments in his military training. His excellent spirit of cooperation, combined with an obvious desire to excel are the principal personal characteristics which produced the outstanding results obtained. These personal attributes characterize not only good soldiers, but also good citizens.

With best wishes for your son's continued military success, I remain,

Sincerely,

JOHN C. BARNEY, JR.
Colonel, Infantry
Commanding
