Dear Mrs. Cawthorne:

It is with deep regret that I have learned of the death of your husband in the performance of his military duties in South Vietnam.

As an Army aviator, Lieutenant Cawthorne was a member of an elite group whose efforts are directed toward assisting other freedom loving peoples of the world. His dedication to duty was an inspiring example of devoted service to this country and this cause.

Please accept my personal sympathy at this time.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN J. TOLSON
Brigadier General, GS
Director of Army Aviation, ACSFOR
