DINING

Whenever most of us go visiting, one of the experiences we look forward to is finding new and different places to eat. All of us have favorite restaurants in cities away from home, and many people have found favorites here in the Reno/Lake Tahoe area. It's not hard to do.

In the following pages are a select group of restaurants and dining rooms that offer a variety of cuisine, ranging from authentic Basque to the finest country French to seafood and steaks. There is Japanese, Chinese and even Mongolian. You'll find some of the best Italian food this side of Roma. There are dining rooms in hotels and casinos and on board Lake Tahoe sternwheelers. There are romantic rooms with booths that are shrouded by drapes for privacy, and there are big rooms where you sit at long tables with people you've never met before.

In short, dining in the Reno/Tahoe area can be whatever experience you wish. And we can promise it will be enjoyable, and you'll probably go away with a new favorite restaurant or two or three. Bon Appetit!

Today's hottest regional cuisine is served up in style at BuenoRico's SouthWest Grill in Reno and South Lake Tahoe. This is not your typical taco and enchilada restaurant. One unusual feature is blue corn tortillas - ground from Indian corn, the tortillas are steel blue in color and possess a subtle difference in taste. Blue corn tacos and enchiladas filled with fajita chicken or steak and served with black beans and New Mexico rice typifies the difference between this South West restaurant and a Mexican theme. Salsa made with mesquite roasted tomatoes and spices and chiles is a flavor that is unique and memorable. Mesquite grilled meats include quail, ribs, sirloin, fajitas, chicken, pork chops, rabbit, and fresh fish. All the appointments are simple and perfect - a cactus in a clay pot sets on each pigskin upholstered table;

Reno's most unique restaurant and bar, occupying one of the city's most beautiful and history rich buildings at the corner of California Avenue and Flint Street, built in 1910 with its classic columned portico, was long a residence for some of Reno's more prominent citizens. The two-story restaurant and bar has the decor of a traditional European-style Basque eatery one might find in San Sebastian, Spain, the beautiful seaside capital of the Basque land. At the Pyrenees Bar & Grill, the menu is extensive, combining Basque specialties with American favorites. With special selections of steaks, chops, chicken and fish entrées, the chefs at the Pyrenees recall the traditions of Basque and American cooking, adding touches of preparation and presentation uniquely their own. And for light lunches, the Pyrenees offers a wide range of home-made soups, salads and sandwiches. Pyrenees is a unique place where the locals meet for their favorite spirits and relax in the privacy of our beautiful outdoor courtyard. Dress is casual. Try the Pyrenees Bar & Grill, California Avenue at Flint Street in Reno.
