2			On 9 Apr 68, reported to HQ that the tall barber in the local compound Vietnamese Barber Shop had spoken with one of the VN girls who works in the shop concerning the where abouts of the other (short) barber who was not present for work. It seems the conversation in Vietnamese, as understood by one of the patrons who understands the language, was that the "short" barber was in Saigon for a local VC meeting. All this was reported to Mr. Geise of MI operations via phone at 0800 (2228/2208).				DBL

2			USARV SJA CPT Lee contacted to obtain per- mission for the hospital to house Viet- namese people arriving at after dark on the POW Ward. Requested CPT Lee check regula- tions and Geneva Convention Code. CPT Lee responded that since MP's were present and ward was divided by nurses station, as long as we do not commingle the POW's with the citizens it would be alright to house them over night in the same ward. I fur- ther spoke with Commander Height of MACV, SJA (922-2840). He concurred with USARV.				DBL
