

47
6-44

1 August 1966

17th Air Transport Wing

17th Air Transport Wing

17th Air Transport Wing

1. The attached letter is something in which your attention, and in particular the CO of the 17th Air Transport Wing, should be drawn. Although General Yang has not received much publicity and is therefore not generally well known, he stands well in the regard in the estimation of those professional military people who have had an opportunity to know him. Please mention him in your high regard.

2. I might add that any compliments to the CO of the 17th Air Transport Wing. This is a position that has performed very well in the past. The most successful missions in Southeast Asia. The CO of the 17th Air Transport Wing has certainly earned himself a place in the annals of the United States Air Force.

Colonel G. W. Rogers, Jr., Major General, USAF
Commanding General 7AF/13AF Thailand

1. The attached letter is something in which your attention, and in particular the CO of the 17th Air Transport Wing, should be drawn. Although General Yang has not received much publicity and is therefore not generally well known, he stands well in the regard in the estimation of those professional military people who have had an opportunity to know him. Please mention him in your high regard.

Dear Mr. [Name],

I am pleased to hear that you are well and hope that you are enjoying your trip to [Location]. I have been thinking about you and your family since you left.

I am sure that you will have a very successful and enjoyable trip. I hope to see you again soon. Please write to me when you have a chance.

In the name of the people of North Korea, I thank you for your kind words and friendly help. I hope that you will continue to support our country.

Sincerely yours,

Kim Il-sung, Chairman of the Workers' Party of Korea