

August 25, 1956

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

NGUYEN NGUYEN has successfully completed a training program at Michigan State University under the auspices of the International Cooperation Administration from November 1955 to August 1956 in the fields of ECONOMICS and PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION.

The course work which Mr. Nguyen undertook was as follows:

1. Marketing of Poultry Products
2. Agricultural Prices
3. Agriculture in the Economy
4. Rural Business Management
5. Introduction to Economics
6. Foreign Trade Practices
7. Advanced Agricultural Marketing
8. National Government

To pursue his specialized interest in the development of agricultural cooperatives Mr. Nguyen spent considerable time travelling throughout the State of Michigan to observe the practices of cooperatives and allied units such as credit and service organizations. Listed below are the organizations with which Mr. Nguyen was able to spend extended periods of time:

Buchanan Farmer's Credit Union, Buchanan, Michigan
Michigan Association of Farmer Cooperatives
Buchanan Co-ops, Inc.
Cherry Growers, Inc., Traverse City, Michigan
Michigan Farm Bureau, Lansing
Farmers Petroleum Cooperative
Agricultural Extension Service, MSU
Michigan State Soil Conservation Committee
U. S. Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service
State of Michigan Department of Agriculture
State of Michigan Department of Conservation

DUOMO INQUIRY, August 25, 1956, page 2

The Production Credit Association of West Lansing
Capital National Farm Loan Association
National Farm Loan Association
Purson's Home Administration
Michigan State University Employees Credit Union
Victor Metal Credit Union
Michigan Crop Improvement Association
Michigan Artificial Breeders Cooperative, Inc.
Michigan Dairy Herd Improvement Association

In addition Mr. Nygren made several field trips to farms and cooperatives to observe marketing and produce grading practices.

Stanley K. Steinbaum
Director, Pasteloplast Program

John T. Dorsey, Jr.
Acting Coordinator